WEDDING.
Bonin-Morris, 8 o'clock A. M. Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock A. M. Bonin and Morris were united in marriage at St. Mary's church by Rev. Arthur DeBruin, the pastor. Edward Bonin and Joseph Morris, father of the groom, were respectively, were the witnesses. There was a large number of relatives and friends in attendance. The bride was becomingly attired in white satin, cut in train, and trimmed with Irish point lace. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 28 Montello street, followed by a breakfast to which about fifty guests were invited.

The bride received a large number of handsome gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Bonin left on the 2 o'clock train for a wedding tour. Central Falls, R. I., the home of Mr. Bonin's parents, will be visited as well as Woonsocket and Providence.

Upon their return, they will begin housekeeping at the new residence, Summit street extension, which they have recently furnished. Mr. Bonin is clerk at Young's hotel.

Letters Not Called For.

Letters addressed as follows are unclaimed at the Danielson postoffice this week:

When a small clique of men put up a scheme to harness the clergy of America and induce the ministers to, in turn "hitch-up" the members of the churches, we should all take notice.

They couldn't harness the preachers in a bad cause except by deceiving them.

Ministers of the gospel are essentially and fundamentally honest but, like all men who work for the public good, they are at times misled by false statements.

Trust them when they have exact truth to speak from.

Now for the story which should interest every one for we are all either receivers of wages or we pay to wage earners and the freedom of each individual is at issue.

In various papers the following statement has been printed. Read it carefully at least twice.

"INTEREST IN LABOR SUNDAY"

"Labor Sunday—the Sunday preceding Labor Day—will be observed generally this year and in future years throughout the United States. This because of the American Federation of Labor declaration for the observance of that day. The numerous letters recently received at American Federation of Labor headquarters from ministers is an assurance that interest in the idea of giving special attention to the cause of labor is widespread. Our readers are urged to try to bring about an understanding in their respective districts with representatives of the church so that ministers will make addresses that will attract trade unionists to the churches in their own neighborhoods."

Observe that "Labor Union" men "are urged" to induce ministers to make addresses that will attract trade unionists to the churches "for the day." "Ministers should say," etc., and winds up with "Union ethics are sound," observe the hidden bait.

This clipping has been sent to papers throughout the country and the Typographical Union men in the New England Federation, the organ of Sam Gompers, et al.

Because of low water in the river, the departments in the Quinebaug mill are being operated to full capacity this week. The weaving and other operations are getting some time off.

HELD IN $500 BONDS.

Probable Cause Found in Brison-Eldridge Case.

Probable cause for holding Mrs. Myrtle Eldridge and Henry Brison, charged with adultery, for the superior court was found on Tuesday after a hearing in the town court. Judge Back fixed the bond at $500 in each instance.

Mrs. Eldridge was able to secure the amount and was released, but Brison has been taken over to jail in default of the amount. Attorney Arthur G. Hill prosecuted for the state. Attorney W. F. Woodward was counsel for Mrs. Eldridge and Brison.

WOMAN AND CHILDREN

Wandering About Streets May Have Been Missing Colchester Family.

A woman about 35 years of age, quite stout, with a long green coat and a black sailor hat with a red ribbon band, who wandered up and down the thorough streets Monday evening, gave rise to the thought when The Bulletin was read by Danielson people Tuesday morning that she may have been the missing Colchester woman. This particular woman had a baby with her.

There was also a girl of 10 or 12 years and a boy of 14. The latter carried a bag and a grip that appeared to be quite heavy.

The woman and children spent all the evening hours wandering, apparently aimless, up and down the streets. The last seen of them was on Tuesday morning, when they were at the station just before the 5.10 train for Norwich came in. As far as is known they did not talk with anyone nor was it possible to ascertain where they spent Monday night, which known.

How these men as strike leaders love to see their names in the papers each morning! It's meat and bread to their souls.

Then think of the lordly power, and don't forget the steady flow of money squeezed from the workman's hard earned pay envelope.

But when these leaders "tip up" any industry no man can hold a job who refuses to pay even on trumped-up charges, and steadily pay less whatever they are.

The workman is absolutely at the mercy of this band of men who have secured and held control of the industry.

Many and many an honest workman has raised his voice and appealed to his fellow to rise and throw off the yoke of Gompers, et al. But as one writes, "At every convention of the American Federation of Labor, strong opposition comes up but the critical moment the impassioned orator appears and most dramatically covers him with a shield of martyrdom."

And the emotional delegates yell in delight, forgetting the instructions of the peaceful workmen at home who desire to free themselves from the odium of membership under the great avowal of strike, boycott, violence and hate.

So we see the unequalled insolence with which these trust leaders propose to "induce" ministers to pull their trusts from the first by preaching modern aggressive and violent labor trust methods.

There is a better way to secure justice for workers, as will appear further on. Just a little diversion here.

I am charged with having first brought to the attention of the public some years ago, the name "Labor Trust."

A trust is a combination of men or organizations for the purpose of selling their product at a profit and restricting production to effect it.

We all say large Oil Company gathers in smaller ones and thus controls production.

The Labor Trust "gathers in" local trade organizations and thus has power to say how much work each man shall do.

The Oil Company then fixes prices. The Labor Trust does likewise.

The Oil Company may "use methods" to force an unwilling dealer to join.

The Labor Trust men go further and slug the independent man if he tries to sell his labor without paying fees and "obeying orders" of the trust.

Exactly alike in purpose which, in both cases is entirely selfish to gain power and money for the leaders.

Central Labor Trust members do not hesitate to use violence, dynamiting of property, burning houses of independent men and even murder to force obedience.

The Oil Company doesn't go so far.
